Captain's List

A good captain knows how to set the course for a flavorful night.

Cornerstone – Napa Valley $139

2005 Vintage Cabernet. Beautifully balanced, with nicely resolved tannins giving the wine a sweet, silky, fruit-driven finish.

Clos Du Val – Napa Valley $89

2005 Vintage Blend. A trademark style of balance, complexity and elegance is found in this selection.

Jordan – Alexander Valley, CA $121

2005 Vintage Cab Blend. Round, fragrant and approachable upon release, with the capacity to age beautifully. Cab Sav, Merlot and Cab Franc, cooperaged in French & American oak barrels, and followed by bottle aging adds to the wine's consistently elegant style.

Silver Oak – Alexander Valley, CA $146

2004 Vintage Cabernet. With uncompromising standards to growing and an extended aging program, a distinctive style of a well-developed bouquet, with complexity and luscious flavors is born in this wine.

Cakebread Cellars - California $136

2004 Vintage Merlot. Luscious flavors of blackberry, currant, tea-leaf and spice.

Merryvale Beckstoffer Vineyard X $179

2001 California
Limited production Merlot, aged 20 months in thin stave French oak Bordeaux barrels.

Belle Glos “Clark & Telephone” – CA $96

2005 Vintage Pinot Noir. Intensive pruning and crop-thinning techniques maximize the flavors of the pinots used in this selection. Supple, with deep natural berry fruit and spice-box qualities.

Opus One – California $277

2004 Napa Valley Blend. Offering a lean, vibrant entry with profound mid-palate density, the wine finishes with bittersweet chocolate and a hint of smoke. A blend of 86% cabernet sauvignon, 6% merlot, 3% malbec, 3% cabernet franc and 2% petit verdot.

Caymus Special Selection – CA $243

2006 Cabernet Sauvignon from the Napa Valley. Scents of licorice, black currants, spice box, and a hint of flowers. Deep and full-bodied. Intense, complex and concentrated, with a vibrant stack of flavors built around currant, blackberry and wild berry, with pretty oak nuances on the finish, along with ripe, firm tannins.

Merryvale Profile – California $198

2004 Blend. 65% Cab Sav, 27% Merlot, 5% Cab Franc, 3% Petit Verdot. Grapes are selected for their concentration, depth of flavor and fine tannin structure. Aged mostly in new French oak chateau ferre barrels and bottled unfiltered. This wine is opulently structured.

Ornellaia - Italy $229

2005 Cabernet Blend
From the coastal region of Bolgheri, this wine is thoroughly Tuscan in its soul. The Cab Sav, Merlot, and Cab Franc grapes are destemmed and gently pressed into either a wood or steel fermentation vessel, before being aged for a year in small French barrels. The juices remain unblended during the aging process. The final cuvee is assembled in an elegant, yet firm style balancing fruit, acidity, oak and tannic backbone.

Dom Perignon – France $249

1999 Vintage Sparkler. A name that is synonymous with class and stature; when only the best will do.
